Good morning everyone, Myself Param and my topic is the book which motivates me to become better. It's doctor APJ Abdul Kalam 'wings of fire'. The book refers to becoming an eventful figure in Indian Air space missile to the 11th president.

The orientation shows his early life in Rameshwaram how he grew up in a multi-religious close-knit community with its discipline, honesty and kindness and knowing the science.

It even shows doctor's leadership in IGMDP. Integrated Guided Missile Development Program and DRDO - Defence Research and Development Organisation and testing the missile such as Agni, Akash, Nag, Trishul etc and known as missile man of india.

Hence it motivates me that his father was a fisherman and does not have any facility then why we can't do after having more facility. And he failed in many missile but he never stopped making it so we should also not stop our path where we are going.
